Dear Esteemed Customer,

Please be advised that all of our productions, transportations, loading, shipments and so deliveries are continuing normally as usual. All our contractual commitments are going to be met with 100 percent without any interruption.

We would like to assure you that there exists no problems with the security and safety of our supply chain. Our partners should not have any concerns about the production, and the stable supply of boron products sourced from Eti Maden.

We will be glad to address any concerns that you might have.

With best regards,

Eti Maden İşletmeleri Genel Müdürlüğü
